

Welcome to DUDLEYCAFE.COM

...the new online residence for the new independent & locally-owned cafe in Dudley Square. Feel free to browse, and contact us with any questions or comments about who we are & what we do!

WKD 7A - 7P | WKE: 9A - 3P
Notice: Closed on federal holidays.

FEATURED ARTIST

AYANA MACK | Boston-based Visual Artist and Graphic Designer, is featured on display for the month of December. "My method of designing is heavily influenced by my background in fine art and illustration. I often rely on hand-drawn illustrations, painting, and watercolors to inspire my work." VISIT WEBPAGE

TWITTER FEED

Tweets

Follow

Dudley_Cafe
@Dudley_Cafe

1h

We ❤️ #Jazz #Brunch as much as local @derekumpkins (👁️ by him). #brunchtime #boston pic.twitter.com/xL3BI4iOcl

Tweet to @Dudley_Cafe

INSTAGRAM FEED

ABOUT

THE CAFE + OUR STORY + HISTORY + PRESS

Centered in the heart of Dudley Square, Dudley Cafe is an independent, locally owned business committed to serving high quality coffee and food to the Roxbury community.

Dudley Cafe is proud to partner with local businesses to support the local economy. Taking inspiration from their sister restaurants, Shanti & NAGA, Dudley Cafe features Indian and Asian inspired dishes from sandwiches (Tandoori chicken) on Nashoba Brook Bakery and Danish Pastry House bread to salads (Thai green papaya and mango) using City Growers produce, alongside their bakery items. Dudley Cafe's partnership with Square One Coffee Roasters, MEM Tea Imports, and Thatcher Farm provides high quality coffee and tea to its customers.